HARVEST

2020 was characterized by a rainy winter and a mild spring allowing good budding and healthy flowering, but right from the start showing that there would be low fruiting. The months of June, July and August were dry and sunny. In September there was some precipitation, which did not influence the quality of the grapes. Production - Low

VINIFICATION

After 4 days in cold maceration, fermentation took place spontaneously in small rafts and without temperature control for about 6 days. This was followed by a period of prolonged maceration for 1 week. It aged in 225 liters Portuguese and French oak barrels for 12 months.

TASTING NOTES

Ruby color, aroma with cassis fruits, ripe peppers, menthol and fennel, volcanic notes and white chocolate and slightly toasted from the barrels where it aged. Elegant mouth with good acidity and very smooth tannins. Long and salty finish.
